THE NEW CHURCH IN THE PAGAN WORLD

LESSON TEXT—1 Timothy 6:11-16: 1 Peter 4:12-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness.—Matt. 6:33.

The church is world-wide in its ministry. Its first experiences of both advance and attack were in Jerusalem, but in due time, he Lord pressed its members out into the Gentile world to preach the gospel. These believers had to meet the challenge of a pagan world, rich in power, and steeped in age-old philosophies which ran counter to the teaching of Jesus Christ.

The story of how the church met that situation and came through victorious is one of the most thrilling and important sections of world history. We catch but a few glimpses of that time in the writings of Paul and Peter which make up our lesson today, but even those are full of instruction and inspiration. The church appears here as it went on:

1. Fighting the Good Fight of Faith (1 Tim. 6:11-16).

In the letter to Timothy, the Holy Spirit used Paul to instruct the early church regarding its life in the midst of an unbelieving world. In the verses immediately preceding our lesson we find a solemn warning against the wrong attitude of heart toward worldly possessions. "Godliness with contentment" is declared to be great gain.

But there is more to Christianity than inward grace, for that must show itself in daily fighting "the good fight of faith." That is done in three ways:

1. By godly living (v. 11). Believers are to flee those things which hinder spiritual progress, and give themselves to the cultivation of graces of a true Christian life.

Space does not permit discussion of these fine virtues of the faithful follower of Christ, but note how tremendously effective they could be (yes, and are today) against paganism. It is so true that the best argument for Christianity is a Christian, but he must be a real one.

2. In holy warfare (v. 12). Living for Christ is not accomplished by sitting in a spiritual rocking chair while the enemy is on the attack. No indeed, there is a good fight to be waged, both personally and as a body of believers.

"The Son of God goes forth to war," against evil in our day. "Who follows in His train?" Thank God, there are those who are on the battle line for God, but they need reinforcements. Who will volunteer today?

3. With blessed expectation (vv. 13-16). The soldier is ready to bear the "blow, sweat, and tears" of deadly conflict because he looks for victory. The soldier of Christ has a sure hope, for he follows Jesus Christ, already victorious over death, and one day soon to appear again as King of kings and Lord of lords.

In view of that expectation, the Christian is to live a consistent, clean and irreproachable life. And why not? If we look for the glorious and blessed and only Potentate, should we not be ready?

II. Meeting the Fiery Trial of Persecution (1 Pet. 4:12-16).

As Peter comforted the sorely tried believers in the early church, he urged them to meet their persecutions:

1. Without confusion (v. 12). We should expect trials in this world; yes, severe, fiery trials. Such things are common to all mankind, and the Christian should not expect to escape.

To them, such trials are real tests of their faith, an opportunity to show to the unbelieving world that God is able to deliver those who put their trust in Him!

To be forewarned is to be forearmed. "Think it not strange concerning the fiery trial." (v. 13).

2. With exceeding joy (v. 13-15). The believer is not to be ashamed of the troubles he bears for Christ's sake. A glory rests upon the one who is privileged to be a "partaker of Christ's sufferings" (v. 14) as he stands with Him who was "a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief" (Isa. 53:3).

Note that the believer is not to do anything which would justify others in making him suffer. It is a disgrace, a shame, which increases his cause of Christ, when a believer has to suffer because he has broken the law, or because he is "a busy body" (R. V. "meddler") in other men's matters.

3. For the glory of God (v. 16). The entire life of the believer should be lived for God's glory. If, then, he is called to pass through trials or to be persecuted for his faith, that, too, is something to be so borne as to glorify God.

The follower of Christ does not hang his head in shame as the difficulties of life come upon him. He trusts God, and by his poise and grace in the midst of difficult circumstances, declares to all the world that God is able to deliver,

MISS CAMPBELL, IS BRIDE OF ST. SGT. J. W. McMINN

Of wide interest is the marriage of Miss Lucille Campbell, daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. E. M. Campbell, of Curtis, to Staff Sgt. John W.
McMinn, Jr., son of Mrs.
John W. McMinn, Sr., and Brevard, N. C., which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents on Friday morning, June 8, at 10 o'clock in the presence of close friends and relatives.
Minister James C. Dixon read the marriage vows. An impressive ring ceremony was used.

The decorations in the bridal colors of green and white were emphasized.
Against a background of tall ferns, native greenery and plumosa ferns, inter-sprinkled with branched candelabra holding waxen tapers, were standard baskets filled with white gladioli, oleander and gypsophila.
The central arrangement of white tapers placed before a large mirror completed the altar setting.

The bride was becomingly attired in a Navy triple crepe, self-trimmed dress with harmonizing accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of sweetheart roses and stephanotis.
A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. The decorations of the reception rooms were artistic.
Throughout the rooms there was a placing of gladioli, shasta daisies, fern and oleander. The table, veiled with Italian lace and cut work, was beautifully decorated with plumosa fern and shasta daisies, decorating the punch bowl. Guests were served sandwiches, punch and individual embossed cakes. Alternating the serving was a coterie of close friends of the bride.

The bride was graduated from Elba High School and later received her degree from Troy State Teachers College. She did graduate work at the University of Alabama where she majored in Sociology. She was for several years a member of the Elba School faculty. Later she accepted a responsible position with the Coffee County Department of Public Welfare.

Sgt. McMinn received his early education in the schools of Brevard and later attended the University of North Carolina. He was prominently connected in business in Brevard before entering the services of the U. S. Army Air Corps. He is now stationed at the Army Air Field, Savannah, Ga.

Following the ceremony, the young couple left for a wedding trip before returning to Savannah where they will reside at present.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A party was given in honor of Evelyn Reeves at her home on Elba Route 4, June 16. Games were played and refreshments were served in the dining room and a birthday cake centered the table. The candles were lighted and the honoree blew them out. "Happy Birthday" was sung as she cut the cake.

Those present were: Les Bedsale, Youngie Bedsale,
Mary Alice Bedsale, Margaret Bradley, Ollie Joe Bowden, Louise Danford, Lynwood Danford, Lester Davis, Edward Flowers, Lois Flowers, Charles Kelley, Edward Meeks, Margum
Meeks, Evelyn Reeves, Margie Reeves, T. J. Sims, three Smith sisters from Clay County, Elaine Walls, Miriam Walls, Bonner Windham.

The honoree received several nice gifts. Hostesses were Louise Danford and Margie Reeves.—Contrib.

HOW to do it...

CONCRETE Handbook of Remodeling FARM CONSTRUCTION

WITH CONCRETE

While you're improving your farm for greater "war food" production, do the job for keeps, with concrete! Here's a
"how to do it" book that will help you build such essential structures as:

Barn Floors
Feeding Floors
Walls, Runways
Foundations
Concrete Masonry
Construction
Cisterns
Watering Tanks
Septic Tanks
Horse Improvements
Manure Pits
Trench Sills
Hog Wallows
Self-Saving Dams

Remember, concrete is fireproof, termitite-proof, easy to work with, low in first cost, needs little upkeep, endures for generations—and it requires a minimum of critical war materials.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

On Sunday, June 3, children, relatives and a large number of friends of Mr. Felix T. Bryant gathered at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. P. Hawthorne, to celebrate his 72nd birthday.

The reunion was held one week early, due to having one brother, Pvt. Julian D.
Bryant, with us, as he could not stay until the next Sunday. He left Monday night for Camp Ord, Calif. We were glad to have him with us on this occasion. Another brother, Pfc. Arthur L. Bryant, could not get back in time for the reunion, but we are looking for him soon, as he has been sent back to the States. He says he will be home soon.

The morning was spent in making music and singing.
At the noon hour a bountiful dinner and barbecue were spread under the trees which everyone enjoyed.

All children except Mrs.
Sid Warrick and Pfc. Arthur L. Bryant were present. The children present were: Mr.
and Mrs. D. P. Hawthorne and children, of Opp Rt. 2;
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bryant and children, of Opp Rt. 2; Mr.
and Mrs. Jim Free and children, Opp Rt. 2; Mr. and Mrs. Grady Cruse, son and his wife and daughter, of Anniston; Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Free and children, of Kinston Rt. 2; Mr. and Mrs.
C. M. Marler and children, of

REEVES - QUACKENBUSH
 A wedding of much interest to a wide circle of friends was that of Miss Jean Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Reeves, of this city, and Petty Officer John F. Quackenbush, son of Mrs. M. T. Quackenbush, of Long Island City, N. Y.

The impressive single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. E. G. Uphan at St. John's Church in Jacksonville, Fla., on June 9, at 4:30 in the afternoon. Chief Petty Officer Matthew Herbech, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, served as best man. Mrs. M. Herbech was matron of honor. She was dressed in sky blue crepe with harmonizing accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds. The bride was lovely in white, wearing a corsage of tiny white rosebuds.

Those present were Mrs. M. T. Quackenbush, mother of the groom, and Mr. W. S. Reeves, father of the bride. The reception was held later at the Roosevelt hotel. The table was beautifully spread with white linen. The tiered wedding cake was in all-white decoration and topped with a miniature bridal couple.

The bride is a graduate of Elba High School and at present is employed at Dorsey Brothers. Mr. Quackenbush is a graduate of Newton High School, Long Island, and has been serving in the U. S. Navy for four years, most of this time being spent in the Pacific theater. The bride will join her husband at an early date and the young couple will make their home in Jacksonville.

Miss Ruth Owen was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jacobs in Montgomery during the past week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Farmer of Montgomery, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bryan during the week end.

Charles Lewis Rowe was a visitor to Montgomery Friday and Saturday.

LESSON

By HAROLD L. LINDSEY, D. D.
 Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago
 (Revised by Western Newspaper Union)

Lesson for July 1
 Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Bible Education, Inc.

GOD'S JOY IN CREATION
 LESSON TEXT—Genesis 1:1-10:12, 12:1-27, 31.
 GOLDEN TEXT—God saw everything that He had made, and, behold, it was very good.—Genesis 1:31.

The destiny of this world seems to be in the balances in our day with wicked men ruthlessly trying to destroy that which is good and upright. We are deeply concerned in our hearts that the right should triumph and that a just and righteous peace should come.

In such a day it is good to remind ourselves, as we will in our three-month series of studies in Genesis, that man did not make this world, nor is it the product of natural forces. God made it.

God, who is eternal, infinite, and knows all from the beginning, is not moved by the impulses of the moment nor staggered by the catastrophes of a day.

He made the world. He made man. He had a plan for them, and still has a plan which He will in due season work out for His own glory.

I. God Made Heaven and Earth (vv. 1-5, 10:12, 12:1-3).

The biblical account of creation—"In the beginning God"—stands as a dignified, satisfactory, intelligent explanation of the origin of things, and in bold contrast to the confusing and almost unbelievable theories of men.

The best of scientists admit that they know nothing of the origin of things, and some say that they never will know. The answer to this query, with which every human philosophy opens, is the affirmation with which the divine account in Genesis opens—"In the beginning God."

Space forbids full discussion of the account of creation, but a study of it will reveal its beautiful order, symmetry, and completeness.

Compare that orderly account with the absurdities of the ancient human cosmogonies, and you have a new regard for Scripture.

II. God Made Man in His Own Image (vv. 26-27).

Although man has often so debased himself by sin and disobedience to God that it seems almost unbelievable, it is nevertheless true that he was made in the likeness and image of God. Because that is true, we never give up hope for him. Because of that image, no matter how deeply defaced by sin, man still may be touched by redeeming grace and restored to fellowship with God.

The likeness and image of God in man refers to a moral and spiritual likeness. Man is a living soul with intelligence, feeling and will. He is a moral being, knowing the difference between right and wrong. He is a self-conscious, personal being.

To man God gave dominion over the earth and all its potential powers. Sometimes one has been hopeful that man was making good progress in the development of the earth's resources for his own good and the glory of God. But one is sad to see how he has used this great God-given opportunity for destruction and death. Only a revival of real Christianity can bring him back to his senses. Let us pray and work for it.

Observe that the family was established as the center of man's life on earth, as God gave him a "help meet unto him." Woman was taken "out of man's head that she should rule over him; nor out of his feet to be trampled upon; but out of his side to be equal with him, under his arm to be protected by him, and near his heart to be loved by him" (Matthew Henry).

The decay of family life and the modern substitution of social and civic units as the basis of life have led to disastrous results, one of which is juvenile delinquency. Not only do we need a revival of religion, we also need a revival of the home life of the nation.

III. God Made All Things Well (v. 31).

When men do recognize the hand of God in creation, they often seem to feel that what He made was rather limited and defective. It would almost seem that God should be grateful that man has been so clever about perfecting His work, developing it and making it useful.

As a matter of fact, God, who had all knowledge and whose standards are higher than man's standards could possibly be looked over His creation and "behold, it was very good" (v. 31). It was a "finished" job (2:1).

Man has destroyed much of creation's beauty. Sin came in and marred it. What man's inventive cleverness has developed of the possibilities of this world is only a minute fraction of what is yet available. Instead of boasting, man might well be distressed at the pathetic slowness with which he has "thought God's thoughts after Him."

Instead of fighting and destroying, he ought to give his energies to building, developing, and above all, to loving God with all his heart and his neighbor as himself (Matt. 22:37-40).
